

#GreenSupplyChains

- o Shore side electricity solutions for small ports & special user requirements.
- o Matching port electrification strategies with regional strategies and thus, considering further greening potentials (synergy finding).
- o Regional stakeholder involvement concepts and multi-user approaches.
- o Increase the visibility of green transport chains and their market uptake by ITS solutions.

